"...I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly" (John 10: 10)

Grace and peace be multiplied to you, our ever increasing Canadian and international ministry family and friends, from God our Father through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Welcome to June, the Month of Impact. As followers of Jesus, we are called to impact this world, and the best way to do so is to promote life. In this article I will show how a commitment to a culture that promotes life creates real and lasting impact in this world. Using the principles that make up the Rhema culture (L.I.F.E.), here are a few ways that we can make an impact in the world:

Learning - A life that is committed to learning is one of the best ways to make an impact. The more we learn, the more we understand; the more we understand, the wiser we become, and it is wisdom that truly changes the world. No wonder Jesus invites us to learn of him (Matthew 11:29).

Individuals - Concern for the total welfare of people, individuals, families and communities, is another way of making a positive impact in the world. The mark of our presence as believers can be seen in the good that we do. Let us seek for ways to do good to everyone (Galatians 6:10).

Finance - How we manage our finances affects our impact. Honoring God with our money, meeting our obligations, and supporting the less fortunate are all ways in which we can impact the world through finance. Money well managed is one of the keys to promoting life (Luke 19:13).

Excellence - Living a life that is devoted to excellence is a great way to impact this world. Through life best practices such as love, discipline, integrity and righteousness, we can change and affect our world for good. A life of excellence will make a mark on this world (Proverbs 12:26).

This month Rhema will seek to make an impact in two key areas. First, on Saturday June 11th we will be partnering with Habitat for Humanity (Toronto) to build homes for the less fortunate. The second will be our National Day of Prayer on Friday, June 24th. Join us from 6:00AM - 6:00PM as we link together with prayer partners from across the country to pray for the salvation and prosperity of our great nation, and for the unity of the Canadian church.

If you would like to join us in making an impact, simply log onto our website www.rhemaonline.ca for more information. To volunteer in any of these initiatives, simply call us or drop by our ministry and together let us make an impact on this world that will never be erased.

With love while Changing & Affecting Lives,
Your Pastor, Orim M. Meikle

Born To Be Great

"And David became greater and greater, for the LORD of hosts was with him."
(1 Chronicles 11:9)

Imagine being told that whatever you do - every business venture, every career move, every book you publish, every CD you record, in every position you hold, anywhere in the world you decide to live - you will be successful. Yes, that's right, guaranteed success. Unimaginable? Far from it.

Consider this:

The resentment of Joseph's brothers culminated in him being sold into slavery, but this was only the beginning of what would be a barrage of trials that Joseph would face on his way to destiny. His journey was indeed tumultuous, and his circumstances were more conducive to defeat than they were to success...more

Memories of Daddy

I always knew that I was 'Daddy's little princess'. From a very tender age, I had learnt to decipher the meaning of his looks, his tender smile and gentle voice. I knew how to tell when he was angry and upset, and I had learnt to detect that sparkle in his eyes when I made him proud. This was confirmed one day when my mother thought I wasn't listening (as all mothers sometimes do), and I heard her rebuke him for showing me preference over my siblings. That of course didn't help matters much on my end, it simply confirmed what I already knew - I was Daddy's most precious little girl.

It wasn't that Daddy bought me expensive toys or anything extravagant. It wasn't that he spent lots of money on me. No, rather it was that Daddy liked to play with me; and when I was just a little girl...more

Health & Wellness: Introduction to Anemia

After a quick dash to catch the train and climbing three flights of stairs to her office, Susan felt an overwhelming sense of fatigue and lethargy. She suddenly remembered that she had not been diligent in her observance of her health and fitness regimen, alongside working too many long hours and keeping late nights. So, after evaluating the various options, she decided to go for a checkup, and the doctor delivered a numbing diagnosis: She was anemic. The doctor then proceeded to give her a list of foods to eat and vitamins to take. This might sound very familiar to many people. In fact, Anemia affects an estimated 400 million women worldwide. However, most women are unaware of the symptoms of anemia and therefore tend...more

Operate In Your Potential

O, Royal gem!
I will make you like the wind,
Nowhere seen,
But everywhere felt
Through divine influence.

Only engage with the power
That lies within,
It is within you
The seed of this future begins.

O, beloved! Speak and it shall manifest.
Decree a thing,
Declare, and it shall be established.
Be of good courage,
For you are destined to win.

Only let your tongue
Be a pen that skillfully
Operates under this open heaven.
In you is found the blessing.
